

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, There are an estimated 650,000 paralytic polio survivors in the United States today, a significant number of whom may experience polio's late effects; and,

WHEREAS, It is essential to locate polio survivors and educate them as to the late effects of polio; and,

WHEREAS, It is still important to inform the health care community and the general public about the impact of polio and its late effects on survivors; and,

WHEREAS, The International Polio Network continues to reach and inform those experiencing the late effects of polio and to provide accurate information to the medical community and the public; and,

WHEREAS, It is necessary to create an atmosphere of recognition and acceptance of all individuals with a disability;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 1 through 7, 1990, as in South Dakota, and urge citizens to observe the week with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

NATIONAL POLIO AWARENESS WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirteenth Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
